SAN JOSE BOXERS FACE CAL AGGIES IN OPENER TONIGHT

DEBATE ON RUSSIA TOMORROW NIGHT

"Can Russia be part of 'one world'?" is the question for the Knickerbocker-Duranty debate tomorrow evening in the Civic auditorium.

Special student rate tickets are on sale in the Library arch.

Duranty will take the affirmative and Knickerbocker the negative, while Dr. William H. Poytress, head of the Social Science department, will be moderator for the debate.

H. R. Knickerbocker and Walter Duranty are Pulitzer prize winners and have had personal experience dealing with Russia.

Duranty was a foreign correspondent for the New York Times for eight years. In 1939 he became a correspondent for the North American Newspaper Alliance in Europe, Russia, and Japan.

Knickerbocker was a Moscow correspondent for International News Service for two years and was a Berlin correspondent for five years. He worked as a war correspondent from the time of the Italo-Abyssinian War in 1935-36, through the end of the war in Germany.

Denny-Watrous and the Student Christian Association are co-sponsoring the discussion. Part of the funds taken from admission will be utilized in the WSSF drive.

Journalism Club To Hold Dinner

A dinner for all journalism and advertising majors will be held at Adolph's restaurant in Santa Clara, Sunday evening. The dinner will be sponsored by the "30" club, journalism major's club.

Dan Bowerman, San Francisco representative of the United Press, will be the guest speaker of the evening. He will speak on the backgrounds and functions of the United Press.

A check for the Chapel fund will be presented to Dean Paul Pitman during the evening. Proceeds from the "Hello Folks" edition of the Spartan Daily, which the club put out last quarter will be turned over to the Chapel.

The dinner will cost $1.35 a plate. All reservations must be made in the Publications office with either Miss Mary Sweeny or Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon and the money must be paid by Friday, according to Virginia Mahon, president.

END OF DRAFT IS POSSIBLE

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 28 (UP)—Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson said tonight that the War Department will not recommend extension of the draft beyond March 31 "if we can get the volunteers."

The War Department's recommendations on whether Selective Service should be extended beyond the March 31 expiration date probably will be sent to Congress within the next 10 days, he added.

CHARLIE REVEALED

Bill Ellsworth, business manager of La Torre, wants members of all social organizations to bring their La Torre ticket stubs with them to tonight's meetings.

"There will be a representative from La Torre at each meeting and he or she will explain the meaning of 'Charlie,'" Ellsworth explains.

ART STAFF APPOINTED

Appointments to the art staff of Lycurgus, campus feature magazine, were announced yesterday by art editor, Jesse Stein-nagel. Miss Stein-nagel stated that more artists and cartoonists are needed to help fill out the staff.

The following persons were appointed: Stan Bennett, freshman commercial art major; Ellis Berry, sophomore commercial art major; Nick Roukes, freshman commercial art major, who was the cover designer of last quarter's issue; Donls Schriber, sophomore commercial art major, and Bill Wagner, junior commercial art major.

The Art department, under the supervision of Milton Lanyon and Miss Marion Mooreland, are aiding the art staff in preparing the winter issue of Lycurgus.

Miss Stein-nagel emphasized that cartoons are needed on sports, such as basketball, track, skiing, etc. Cartoons for the feature topic of "How State Eats" are also asked to be submitted.

Anyone who is interested in submitting cartoons for Lycurgus should contact Miss Stein-nagel in the Publications office.

RATIONING IS CHALLENGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (UP)—Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts today issued an injunction outlawing the government's industrial sugar rationing program but the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals stayed the order pending a review.

CURTAIN RISES TONIGHT ON 'ETHAN FROME'

By WILLETTA SULLIVAN

Curtain will rise at 8:15 tonight in the Little Theater for the first of the four-night run of "Ethan Frome," Speech and Drama department production, adapted from the novel by Edith Wharton.

Directed by John Richard Kerr, the play will feature John Calderwood in the title role; Edna Beth Payne as Zenobia, Ethan's wife, and Anne Hoffman as Mattie.

The show will be complete with lights and music to demonstrate cinematic technique under the technical direction of James Liot of the Speech department faculty.

Set for the play is built on a revolving stage to save time between scenes. Five settings have been constructed on the turntable which will create a three dimensional view from the audience. Props consist of trees and snow, as action takes place on a New England farm in winter.

SUPPORTING CAST

James Spitz, Milton Brietzke, Joseph Bologna, Ed Williams, Joseph Johnson, Gayle Maphet, Roxanna Hildreth, and Donald Halladay will support the three leads.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Doug Morrison is stage manager for the production and Pat Kimmick his assistant. Barbara Baumann is electrician; costumes are being handled by Roxanna Hildreth, Barbara Vicarro, Joan Buechner, and Kay Goepfert. Also on back stage detail are Don Titcomb, Ed Williams, Conrad Smith, Maggie Miller, and Earl Miller.

Tryouts for the next play, "The Doctor in Spite of Himself," to be presented March 5-9, will be held Thursday and Friday afternoons at 4 o'clock in the Little Theater. James Olancy will direct the production. Scripts may be obtained in the Reserve Book room.

Bruce McNeil Leaves Hospital

Bruce McNeil, injured recently in an automobile accident, will leave the hospital today and return to his home in Redwood City, according to hospital officials. He suffered a broken jaw in the accident, and he will be on a liquid diet for the next two months.

As yet there is no information as to when he will return to school.

LOCAL GYM SCENE OF FOURTEEN BOUT CARD

By WILBUR AGEE

An inexperienced but determined squad of boxers from Davis invaded Spartan pavilion tonight as the Cal Aggies and Coach Don Portal's Varsity boxers open their 1947 season in a dual meet.

First of the 14 scheduled matches will get underway at 8 o'clock. Coach Myron Schall, Aggie mentor, has had the same trouble as Portal in forming a team this year. With no returning lettermen or outstanding boxers from past years, he has had to mold his squad from beginning material.

On this basis San Jose is a slight favorite to nose out the invading team but will have to go all the way to do it.

Leading the Spartans will be Charles Townsend, 1942 PCI title winner at 135, against Jerry Stallings, Aggie 135 pounder. Townsend, by virtue of his work while in the service, should be able to handle his opponent. It will be his first real test in college competition since 1942.

The 155 pound matches will provide plenty of action tonight. Bob Anderson, who put on a good show in the All College tourney and looked impressive in winning, will tangle with Don Brown. Bud Roberts, who could not enter the recent tourney due to illness, will meet Vernon Rowley, Aggie boxer, in the second go at this weight.

Wayne Fontes will carry the Spartan colors in the only 165 pound battle, against Tom Nakashima.

Others slated to see action against the invaders are: heavyweights Gray McConnell and Val Marchi, 125 pounders Jim Johnson and Ray Davilla, 150 pounders Rudy Aguirre and Lincoln Kimura, 145 pounders Al Gigg and John Mount, and 175 pounders Walt Meyer and Dick Payne.

Spies Threaten Atomic Security

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (UP)—David E. Lillenthal, chairman-designate of the Atomic Energy Commission, today blamed American scientists for many "serious breaches" of atomic security. He asked for a secret senate hearing on atom bomb spying by foreign agents in this country.

He told senate members of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy that most of the security breaks came through scientific publications open to public scrutiny.

He said the worst violation occurred in an official government report, released shortly after the first A-bomb was dropped on Japan in August, 1945, which described four ways of splitting the atom.

He refused to be drawn into public discussion of foreign atomic spying. But he expressed serious concern and asked the senators to discuss it with him only in closed session.

CLASS OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED

All nominations of candidates for class officers in the forthcoming elections, which are to be held on Friday, February 7, must be filled out and turned into the Business office before 5 p. m. on Friday, January 31, according to an announcement made by the Student Council.

In addition to the regular class officers, two representatives from the freshman class are to be elected to the Student Council, and two members of the junior class are to be elected to the Student Court. The two Student Court positions must be filled by one man and one woman student.

Nominations for class offices may be made from the floor during nomination assemblies, which will be held for each class on Monday, February 3.

All other nominations for the Student Court and Student Council positions must be made by filing nomination petitions with the Business office.

VANDALS CAUSE TRAIN WRECK

WALTON, Ind., Jan. 28 (UP)—Vandals or thieves caused the derailment of a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train in which four persons were killed and 36 injured last night, a state police detective said today.

The wreck occurred at 6 p. m. when the train, speeding through this small town en route from Cincinnati to Chicago, hit a 400-pound roll of baling wire. The engine and six of the train's eight cars were thrown off the tracks and scattered along the right of way.

ARTICLE 2, SECTION 1

"All eligible voters may vote for the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior Councilors." This is Article II, Section 1, Clause 3, of the Constitution of the Associated Students of San Jose State college, which came up at Monday's meeting of the Student Council and was voted to remain in the Constitution.

The main opposition to this clause, seemed to be based on the supposition that certain persons or "cliques" could make use of this method of choosing class councilors, to gain control of the governing body of the students of San Jose State college.

There are approximately 6,000 students now enrolled at State, the majority of these are entitled to vote at student elections. However, at the last student poll, the one concerning the changing of the school colors, only 1,781 students took time out to cast a vote.

The fault of cliques gaining control of the Student Council, if such is the case, can not then be the fault of the constitution, but rather that of the students. Their lack of interest in their student government makes it an easy task for organized factions on the campus to swing any election in their favor.

In the coming class election we will be given the chance to select our representatives to the Student Council. Let's back the candidate we feel will fill the position, but first let's back the election!

Phi Kappa Pi society will honor their 25 new pledges tonight with a dinner at L'Omelette restaurant near Palo Alto.

Lois Mendenhall Holstrom, president, and Delayne Broadbent, vice-president and pledge mistress, will preside at the affair.

Midge Doyle a former State coed, recently announced her engagement to Ray Lasterwater of San Jose also a former Spartan. No plans have been made for the wedding.

Don "Scout" Thomson, senior physical education major and prominent member of the Spartan swimming team, is telling friends of his engagement to Elizabeth Willard of San Francisco.

The couple plans to be married sometime during the summer.

Another former coed who has announced her engagement is Martha Roslingna, former member of Phi Kappa Pi. Her fiancée is George Cella of San Jose.

Coop

Coffee Society Slaps 1750 Cups Opening Day

By DALE BOWER

Spartans and Spartaniets have welcomed with unrestrained joy the opening of the ever-popular rendezvous, the Coop. For the past six weeks, students have been lost, with the Coop closed. None of the other near-by eateries are really "home" to the Coffee set.

Speaking of coffee, Coop manager, Ada Gardner reports that on Monday 1750 cups of coffee served. Approximately 6000 student patrons appeared during the opening day.

According to Miss Gardner, serving went through Monday with but one hitch. With the addition of so much new equipment requiring electricity, a severe strain has been placed on the current. At regular intervals the hamburger and hot-dog cooker would "blow" the light and the juke box. This has been remedied by the addition of a new part to the cooker.

Two large garbage cans have been placed by the hamburger-coke bar to take care of the paper cups and plates used at the bar. Miss Gardner says these haven't been added for beauty, but utility. "Unless students learn to place their cups and plates in those after eating at the tables something will have to be done."

Another regulation which concerns eating at the tables, requires that no china be carried to them unless the person returns the china to the counter. "The tables have been placed there for the use of the hamburger-coke bar patrons only," said Miss Gardner. "It is our hope that during the nice Spring weather tables will be placed outside."

During the lunch hour the Coop is still the usual madhouse.

Other Blondes

Dear Blondie Black:

It was with a good deal of amusement that I read your contribution to yesterday's issue of the Spartan Daily. But, tell me, Blondie, are you naive enough to believe that you are the only blonde inhabiting the college cafeteria? That you are the only blonde Bill Dunlavy has spoken to in that locale?

Really, dearie, I'm afraid your ego got the better of you. It was not you of whom Mr. Dunlavy spoke, but I. The only possible reason I can think of for not being recognized by the "big effort" lately, is that I have changed my coiffure from white to rosy red. La dee dee-dee-dee-dee; every time the "big effort" holds my hand, he tells me that he's mine.

Tonight

Play, 'Ethan Frome' May Rate Among Best Efforts of Little Theatre

By MAX MILLER

Music and Dramatic Editor

When the curtain parts on the Speech and Drama department's presentation of Ethan Frome tonight, it may well be that this production of Edith Wharton's frosty masterpiece will be rated as one of the best performances ever to hit the stage of San Jose State college's Little Theatre.

Problems of Peace Poytress Assails 'Pacifist Idea'

By BRUCE PEY

Shades of 'Wild Bill' Poytress' Ripping, wheeling, and stomping, with frequent pooh-poos and other special expletives, Dr. William Poytress, head of the Social Science department at San Jose State college, roared into the "Pacifist Idea" with a full head of steam at yesterday's meeting of the Problems of Peace class in room 24.

Seeking to present the key to the French defeat, and the things that led to it, Dr. Poytress said the typical attitude in France at the time of the war was "why fight to keep France in the hands of the bankers and the industrialists?" "The social and political cleavage was complete between the right and the left, there was no middle path," he added.

"The United States is still basically middle class—the old messenger boy to President still holds." "When you have ideas like this, you can't talk socialism and communism to the people with any measure of success," Dr. Poytress said.

Tying the isolationist feeling that existed in the U.S. before the war in with the situation today, Dr. Poytress said, "Isolationism is not dead—you can't kill 150 years of history. War is a horrible thing, but you don't exercise it out of being."

PRACTICE STARTS

NEXT WEEK:

Next week, Coach Walt McPherson will call his horsehiders together, issue uniforms, and the 1947 baseball season will be underway.

The Spartan batterymen have been working out these last three weeks and the weather man has been good to McPherson, but there is still plenty to be done before the practice games start.

FEATURE—GIRL

BALLPLAYER:

The early workouts were featured by the appearance of a young lady who likes to play ball. She had a very enjoyable time proving that she could play but when she took a look at the roster of players McPherson has in his desk, the female "Babe Ruth" decided to stay with softball. Her name, Dee Olivieri.

CALIFORNIA OPENS

WORKOUTS:

Clint Evans had 120 aspirants on hand last week when he opened baseball practice at Berkeley. The Golden Bears will probably appear on the Spartan's baseball schedule this year.

Returning lettermen at Cal include Dick Lerner, Virg Butler, Ken Gustafson, and Tony Butjan, pitchers; John Fiscalini, Bob Hogeboom, and Lyle Palmer, outfielders; Glenn Dufour, El Clow, Jim Brown, and Red Finney, infielders; Jim Fiscalini and Will Lotter, catchers.

Charley Erb, football player, is one of the candidates for an infield post. Evans should have some club this year.

AROUND THE CONFERENCE:

Not much activity in baseball at other conference schools. McPherson seems to have jumped the gun on other OCAA schools by starting his batterymen working out this early. However, all of the schools around the conference will be opening baseball practice about February 1.

Advance notices indicate that talent will be plentiful because of the bumper crop of returning servicemen plus lettermen from last year and from previous years.

ANCHORS AWEIGH:

Ex-sailors trying for a position on the Spartan nine should remember that McPherson is a former Navy Lieutenant with 8½ years service. Maybe Walt can use his influence for the boys when the club stops over at the San Diego Naval Air Station on the southward trip.

SPARTAN CAGERS BATTLE TIGERS AT STOCKTON

The Spartan cagers have their longest layoff of the season this week. The next time the McPhersonmen will take to the hardwood wars will be Saturday night at Stockton when they tangle with COP.

EARLY START

The Tigers have an early start in the conference play having won their first four OCAA contests while losing nary a tilt to league opponents.

In the Cage clinic conducted here during the first part of the month the Tigers took fourth place, beating Chico and Fresno, tying Cal Poly, and losing to the Spartans, Santa Barbara, and San Francisco State.

DISPLAYED SKILL

In recent contests though, the COPers have displayed much more skill and a smoother outfit, giving St. Mary's a tough game, which the Gaels had to go into overtime to win.

Sharpshooting Hank Pfister, a deadly accurate forward; little Lou Franz, the Tiger field captain who learned his basketball from Lloyd Leith, and Jack Toomay, giant center, are the leaders of the COP attack.

TOSS-UP

While the Spartans defeated the Tigers in their brief encounter during the Cage clinic, Saturday's game will be a toss-up.

INTRAMURAL

The Kakuichi's Krazy Kasaba Kavorters ran roughshod over the Phi Mu Alphas yesterday winning 66-10. Sam Lugonia was high point man with 28 points. The Unknowns dumped the Frosh 44-38 in a close game. John Kane and Al Lamboy led the victors attack with 14 points apiece.

Two games are on tab for today at 12:30 o'clock. The first game features the Independents and Mangini's Murderous Marauders. In the final setto the Goof Offs vie with the Current Events Forum five.

FRESNO STATE ADOPTS NCAA PURITY CODE

By JOHN KEITH POPE

Fresno State college's Board of Athletic Control recently passed a motion outlawing commercialism in athletics at Fresno State.

This motion means that Fresno State college will adopt the principles of the NCAA, which are as follows (not fully defined):

1. Principle of amateurism. Any college athlete who takes pay for participation in athletics does not meet this definition of an amateur.
2. Principle of institution control and responsibility. The control and responsibility for the conduct of both intercollegiate and intramural athletics, shall, in the last analysis, be exercised by the institution itself.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

3. Principle of sound academic standards. The institution shall see to it that an athlete is admitted to the college on the same basis as any other student, and observes, and maintains the same academic standards.

4. Principles governing financial aids to athletes. Aid to an athlete may be permitted without the loss of eligibility, only if approved and awarded on the basis of need, by the regular agency established in his institution for the granting of aid to all students.

5. No member of the athletic staff, or other official representative of athletic interests, shall, outside the boundaries of his own campus, solicit the attendance at his institution, of any prospective student; nor shall he be permitted to offer any financial aid or equivalent inducements to any prospective (athletic) student.

6. Implementation of the principles. A firm agreement by the institutions which accept and implement these principles, that they will confine their intercollegiate competition to contests with institutions which avow the same principles, and which conduct their athletic programs under rules which make these principles (NCAA) effective.

STATE MATMEN FACE STANFORD HERE FRIDAY

Coach Ted Mumby's Varsity wrestlers hope to make it two in a row over the Stanford Indians here this Friday afternoon when the two squads engage in what promises to be another thrilling dual meet.

EARLY DEFEAT

In their last meeting two months ago, the Spartans barely nosed out the Redskins by a score of 12½-11½. Heavyweight Keith Wilson, who was the runner up in the Northern California junior wrestling championships held at Berkeley last Saturday, was the hero of that meet as he pinned his opponent in the last final match which gave the Spartans the three points they needed to win.

Bill Rothwell injured his ankle again and will probably be out for the match. Co-captain Hans Weidenhofer, however, will be returned to the wrestling activity again and will see action.

PROBABLE STARTERS

Others who are likely to see action against the Indians include: Captain Ray Miser, Bill Rodman, Stan Smith, Carl Holmberg, Keith Saboff, Bill Elam and Pat Felice, who has been undefeated in regular season meets.

Two new opponents are on the Spartan sked for next month, the San Francisco YMCA and the Olympic Club. Matches with Stanford and San Francisco State college will be held next month at the opponents' arenas.

Poor Lighting...?

The lighting in Spartan pavilion must be getting bad. No two men could be blind enough to make so many errors as the officials for the Nevada-State series last weekend.

Both sides took a beating and it caused some ill feeling among the players of each team. It was the poorest officiating job we have ever seen and something should be done about improving it in the future.

High School...?

The continual hissing and booing at the last few basketball games reminds us of our high school days. At that time interschool competition was something new and we didn't know how to act.

It looks like there must have been some of these high school kids in the audience. Surely those in college know how to act or do they?

Another reason for the minor flare ups in the Nevada series and the USF tilt in San Jose.

FROM THE SIDELINES

four straight wins to date. However, San Jose is right behind them by virtue of its lone conference win over San Diego.

The Spartans invade the Tiger hardwoods Saturday and will be trying to change the situation.

NCAA...

Fresno State is the first school in the CCAA to adopt the principles set up by the National Collegiate Athletic Association pertaining to commercialism in athletics.

One of the provisions states that competition with other schools would not be allowed unless they also adopted the NCAA principles.

What will be the future of the CCAA? What will be the stand of San Jose?

A provision allows that present contracts may be carried out whether or not both are NCAA members but no more can be made.

Boxing...

Coach Dee Portal is staging another of his great boxing shows tonight in the local arena. Fourteen matches are on the card.

Brazil nuts are said to have the highest caloric value of foods with a rating of 425. The value of mixed pickles is five.

CCAA PERILED BY FRESNO POLICY

of the NCAA could mean:

1. The break-up of the CCAA conference.

2. The CCAA conference could continue to function with or without Fresno State college as a member.

3. That all members of the CCAA could eventually accept the principles of the NCAA.

4. That Fresno State college might be definitely finished as a powerhouse as far as athletics is concerned, because the competition by larger schools in getting the prospective athletes to come to their institutions instead of Fresno.

However, there are plenty of loop-holes in the principles of the NCAA, for instance: Rule No. 5 refers to no "on-campus help to prospective athletes by members of the athletic staff." This means that certain "money-loaded" merchants and large industries could still lend financial aid to students without Fresno's Board of Athletic Control knowing anything about it.

ATHLETIC OZAR?

5. A possibility that an athletic czar might be appointed to see that the NCAA principles are carried out. If this happened, institutions in this area would be bucking the "Atherton Code" as in the days of old.

Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft, director of athletics, commented on Fresno State college's move, "San Jose and other members of the CCAA conference are waiting for a report from J. Flint Hanner. No action has been taken by other league members."

DEE PORTAL ON AIR

DeWitt Portal, boxing coach at San Jose State college, was interviewed yesterday on the Radio Guild's News and Interviews program over station KSJO at 4 o'clock.

Prescott Kendall and Hugh Rideout wrote the show; other student participants were William Henderson, Letitia Kendall, and Richard Clark.
